MCQUEARY HENRY BOWLES TROY, L.L.P. NAMES NEW STAFF

DALLAS – March 9, 2009 – McQueary Henry Bowles Troy, L.L.P. (MHBT), one of the largest privately owned insurance and risk management firms in the U.S., announced today that Jason Scott, Justin Tatum and Patric Turner recently joined its Dallas office as producers for the firm.

“We are very pleased to welcome Jason, Justin and Patric to the MHBT family,” said Bill Henry, chairman and CEO of MHBT. “Each brings a unique set of talents and expertise that will truly provide additional value to our MHBT team and to our clients.”

Jason Scott joins MHBT with significant expertise and client experience in the benefits and sales side of business. Prior to joining MHBT, he opened a marketing firm in Chicago, Ill. where he built it from the ground up to 30 employees. Scott obtained a master’s degree in marketing and management, as well as a bachelor’s degree with a major in communication studies and a minor in marketing from Texas Tech University.

Justin Tatum has been in the insurance and risk management profession for the past nine years, with significant expertise in property and casualty. Prior to joining MHBT, he served as a national sales agent for Centex Insurance Agency and as an account manager for Farmers Insurance. Tatum holds a Group 1 Life and Health license and earned a bachelor’s degree in business administration from Lubbock Christian University with a major in general business. He is a member of Dallas Young Professionals and active in the community through his involvement with St. Rita Catholic Community and the Dallas Galloway Runner’s Club.

Patric Turner joined MHBT after serving as an associate with Presidio Investments, a commercial real estate firm. Prior to Presidio, he worked with Revere Commercial Realty where he garnered valuable expertise in the arenas of hospitality, retail, manufacturing and multi-family development. Patric received his bachelor’s degree in Marketing from Texas A&M University.
